

2017 Lenten Series

A partnership with St. Hilary Catholic, New Hope Baptist and Faith Lutheran Churches

Building Bridges conversations on race

Plan to join us each evening for a light meal, worship and discussion on bridging the racial divide.

- March 8 St. Hilary, Conversation on Racism and Policing
- March 15 No Combined Gathering
Prayer Service for the Racism Series, 7 p.m. at FLC
- March 22 New Hope Baptist, Conversation on Racism and the Criminal Justice System
- March 29 Faith Lutheran Church, Conversation on Racism and Voting Rights
- April 5 St. Hilary, Conversation on Racism, Local Issues, & Where Do We Go from Here?

6:00 - 6:30 p.m. Gathering, Registration

6:30 - 7:15 p.m. Meal

7:15 - 7:45 p.m. Worship

7:45 - 9:00 p.m. Presentation/Discussion

To facilitate planning for the meals and because those who attend will be assigned to tables for the discussion, pre-registration for all four gatherings is requested, beginning Feb. 1. Please do so on-line at www.SignUpGenius.com/go/10C0848AAA928A7FD0-lenten, or use the link on our website: faithlutheran-church.org, or sign-up at the Welcome Center Desk, or call the church office, 330-836-8811.

Note: Please arrive before 6:30 p.m. each night to check-in and pick up your name tag!

Car-pooling to New Hope Baptist, 1706 S. Hawkins Ave., is encouraged on March 22. Please meet in the FLC Parking Lot at 5:45 p.m. Directions are available at the Welcome Center Desk.

America's Original Sin by Jim Wallis will prompt the discussion questions for our Lenten gatherings. If you would like to order a book in advance ($12), contact the church office for details.
